Meyers is Fidelity director

Donald J. Meyers, vice president of General Electric Company and general manager of the company's Mobile Communications Business Division, has been elected a director of Central Fidelity, N. A. Announcement of the appointment has been made by Lewis B. Goode, Jr., bank president.
Meyers was graduated from Georgetown University. After a tour of duty with the U. S. Navy, he was employed in 1956 by G. E. in the manufacturing training program.
Following assignment in the company's ordinance and capacitor business, he was promoted in 1962 to manager of shop operations in G. E.'s battery business and in 1965, he was named manager-manufacturing.
In 1969, he was named manager of manufacturing in the capacitor business and in 1972, he was promoted to general manager of the Electronic Capacitor Products Section.
Meyers was manager of the Specialty Transformer Department from 1975 to 1976 and in 1977, he was appointed general manager of the Mobile Radio Department in Lynchburg.
In early 1979, he was made general manager of the company's Mobile Communications Operations and later that year was appointed general manager of the Mobile Communications Business Division.
In April, 1980, he was elected a vice president of G. E.

Local soils judging team does well

The soils judging team of the Halifax County Young Farmers Association placed first in the annual area contest at Rustburg, March 26. Appomattox was runner-up.
R. E. McClenny, Jr., District Conservationist, SCS, selected the test plots and made official placings. W. L. Carroll, instructor of agriculture in the hostRustburg High School, was in charge of local arrangements.

Local man named to Fork Union honor roll

FORK UNION, Va.–A local boy, Michael Maurice Carmody, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen L. Carmody of Appomattox, has been named to the Honor Roll for Term 111 at Fork Union Military Academy in Fork Union, Virginia.
This achievement is particularly significant at Fork Union Military Academy because of the Academy's One-Subject Plan of study, whereby students take one course during an eight week period, one term representing an entire year's work in that subject. The plan has been in continuous use at Fork Union in the high school grades since 1950.
Fork Union Military Academy, with a student body of 650 boys from 34 states and 21 countries, offers a college-preparatory education in grades five through twelve, plus a year of postgraduate high school study.

Oakville News

Miss Kelly Harsh of Windsor, Va., spent the weekend with Miss Katherine Marshall.
Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall Jr., and Miss Katherine Marshall honored their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas Marshall, Sr., on their 25th wedding anniversary, Sunday afternoon. Approximately 200 relatives and friends attended this festive occasion at their home in Oakville.
The sanctuary of Red Oak Baptist Church was filled on Sunday, March 29 honoring the Rev. and Mrs. G. E. Hughes. The celebration marked the 40th anniversary of his ordination to the gospel ministry. The panel was on display depicting the life of the Hughes; the books of letters and photographs were presented by the churches he had served. Delegations from churches he had served in Virginia Beach, Northern Va., and Appomattox County attended the services. Red Oak presented a beautiful program in music under the direction of Mrs. Floyd Fleshman and others. A solo was presented by Mrs. Mary Frances Hughes McIntyre. Guest pianist was Mrs. Leftwich and Mr. John Hall was song leader. Mr. Steve Godsey served as master of ceremonies. A delicious dinner was served and enjoyed by all who attended. A generous monetary gift was presented to Rev. and Mrs. Hughes. The Rev. and Mrs. Hughes will be retiring in Richmond, Va in the near future.
David Eugene Camden, U. S. Navy, Norfolk, Va. spent the weekend with his parents,
